

First Fundamental Theorem of Calculus

Given f is

- continuous on interval $[a, b]$
- F is any function that satisfies $F'(x) = f(x)$

Then

$$\int_a^b f(x) dx = F(b) - F(a)$$